Case No. 17-cv-06748-WHO

JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT

DATE: September 4, 2018

TIME: 2:00 p.m.

The parties to the above-entitled action jointly submit this JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f), Civil Local

Rule 16-9, and the Standing Order for All Judges of the Northern District of California.

1. Jurisdiction & Service

On or about November 22, 2017, this case was removed from the Superior Court of California, County of Alameda, based on federal question jurisdiction, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1441(a).

There are no issues with respect to personal jurisdiction or venue.

All named parties have been served.

2. Facts

Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiff Demetric Di-az worked at the Tesla Factory as a Production Associate in 2015 through West Valley Staffing. His father, Plaintiff Owen Diaz, also worked at the Tesla Factory in 2015 and 2016 through CitiStaff Solutions, Inc. initially as an Elevator Operator and subsequently as an Elevator Lead. During their employment, both men were referred to as "nigger." Owen Diaz was also called "boy" in a demeaning tone, observed his son being referred to as a "nigger" when bringing him lunch and observed racist caricatures that resembled the "pickaninny" imagery of the early twentieth century. The men complained about the harassment, but instead of fixing the problem, Defendants retaliated against Plaintiffs.

Defendant West Valley Staffing Group' Position: Defendant West Valley Staffing Group is the fictitious business name for West Valley Engineering, Inc. ("West Valley"), which is a staffing company. Defendant Tesla, Inc. ("Tesla") is one of West Valley's clients. Plaintiff Demetric Di-az ("Di-az") was temporarily placed on assignment with Tesla by West Valley on or about August 31, 2015. During the course of his assignment with Tesla, Di-az repeatedly violated safety protocol and/or failed to timely appear for work. Following repeated warnings, Di-az's assignment with Tesla was terminated. Before, during or after his assignment with Tesla, West Valley has no record of any complaints made by Di-az regarding any alleged discriminatory treatment. West Valley denies all allegations of liability and damages set forth in Plaintiffs' complaint.

Defendant Tesla, Inc.'s Position: Plaintiffs are African-American males who were temporarily assigned to work at Tesla by CitiStaff Solutions, Inc. ("CitiStaff") (Plaintiff Owen Diaz) and West Valley Staffing Group (“West Valley”) (Plaintiff Demetric Di-az). Plaintiff Owen Diaz worked as an Elevator Operator from approximately June 3, 2015 to March 18, 2016, when he stopped showing up to work. Plaintiff Demetric Di-az worked as a Production Associate from approximately August 24, 2015 to October 22, 2015 when his assignment to Tesla was terminated for ongoing performance and safety issues that had been addressed with him and are documented. During their respective assignments to Tesla, Plaintiffs worked in entirely separate locations at Tesla’s facility in Fremont, California. Tesla denies Plaintiffs’ allegations of liability and damages.

Defendant CitiStaff Solutions, Inc.’s Position: Plaintiffs are African-American males who were temporarily assigned to work at Tesla by CitiStaff Solutions, Inc. (“CitiStaff”) (Plaintiff Owen Diaz) and West Valley Staffing Group (“West Valley”) (Plaintiff Demetric Di-az). Plaintiff Owen Diaz worked as an Elevator Operator from approximately June 3, 2015 to March 18, 2016, when he stopped showing up to work. CitiStaff denies Plaintiffs’ allegations of liability and damages.

3. Legal Issues

Plaintiffs:

- Whether Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs on the basis of their race in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1981;
- Whether Defendants created a hostile work environment on the basis of Plaintiffs’ race in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1981;

- DeWitt Lambert v. Tesla, Inc.: JAMS Arbitration Reference No. 1100088204.

Defendants do not contend that there are any related cases.

11. Relief

Plaintiffs' Position:

Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages for economic loss and emotional distress; punitive damages to deter Defendants from engaging in similar unlawful behavior; an order enjoining Defendants from such behavior; pre- and post-judgment interest as allowable by law; reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred; allowable penalties; and any such further relief as the court deems proper.

Defendants' Position:

Defendants deny Plaintiffs' allegations of liability and that Plaintiffs have been damaged in any way.
